MEMORANDUM FOR: The Legislative Counsel

SUBJECT: Assistance to the Joint Economic Committee

REFERENCE: Letter to Congressman Wright Patman, Chairman,
Joint Economic Committee, from Lt. Gen.
M. S. Carter, Deputy Director, CIA, dated
13 July 1962

1. In accordance with the commitment made by General Carter in the referenced letter, we have given informal assistance to the Committee by furnishing a number of unclassified summary research papers, which are listed in the attachment. We have transmitted these papers to Mr. Leon Herman, staff director for this project, as they have been completed, for inclusion in the Committee's report on recent economic growth in the USSR.

2. We believe that the delivery of these research papers fulfills our commitment to the Joint Economic Committee, apart from proofreading the printed galleys.

3. Will you please advise me of the disposition of this case.
